

Entrusted to our Job Printing Department cannot fail to please. Large or small jobs receive the same careful attention. We solicit a trial order. Call, write or telephone.

Is the certain method of bringing to the attention of prospective buyers what you have to sell. Progressive merchants use its columns regularly in offering dependable merchandise to the public.

WASHINGTONVILLE

Bright, Breezy Paragraphs Telling The Happenings In The Village on Mahoning's Southern Border.

BY CLARENCE BAKER

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

For the past Sweet Remembrance. For the present, Fair Greetings. For the future, Bright Hopes, and a Merry Christmas to the Dispatch readers.

Harry Hartzler was in Youngstown Saturday.

Mrs. Peeler was a Youngstown visitor Tuesday.

Jacob Parry was a Lisbon caller last Tuesday.

Mrs. Wilbert DeJanc was in Leetonia Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bond was in Salem Saturday.

Mrs. Hugh McIntosh was a Leetonia caller Saturday.

Mrs. Samuel Platt was in Salem Thursday afternoon.

Charles Bennett is still confined to his bed by sickness.

Herman Coy has purchased a fine Overland automobile.

Clarence Baker is off duty this week on account of illness.

George Firth and wife were in Washington Tuesday.

Prof. Gray of Salem visited the schools here Tuesday.

Dan Stevens of Sebring called on relatives here Tuesday.

Mrs. Joseph Tourdout was a Youngstown visitor Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis were Leetonia shoppers Saturday.

Elmer Siler of Leetonia was a caller here Monday morning.

O. Bossett and Joseph Thorp were in Youngstown Saturday.

The school will have its Christmas exercises Friday afternoon.

Miss Leeta Bossert was a Salem caller Wednesday.

Mary Dalrymple, who is ill with pneumonia, is improving a little.

Surely the kiddies are having fine sport these days coasting the hills.

Frank Boston and son Leslie were in Youngstown Monday on business.

Mrs. Harvey Baker and daughter Myrtle were in Youngstown Tuesday.

Miss Nellie Walters of Youngstown visited James King and wife over Sunday.

Mrs. Ed. Hermann and Mrs. Earle Chamberlain were Leetonia shoppers Tuesday.

Miss Freda Johnson visited her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Gabriel, over Sunday in Salem.

Mrs. Walter Peet of Leetonia spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Hugh McIntosh.

Here is hoping that every reader of the Dispatch will have a very Merry Christmas.

Master Wm. Carns of Salem is visiting his uncle, O. P. Moore, and wife this week.

Frank Stouffer called on h's daughter, Mrs. Fred Denner, in Youngstown, Monday.

Kenneth Stouffer of Struthers is visiting his aunt, Mrs. August Mathey, for a few days.

Miss Kathryn Wilson of Youngstown spent Wednesday night with Miss Myrtle Baker.

Miss Muriel McIntosh, teacher in the Youngstown schools, is home for two weeks' vacation.

Misses Leeta and Ruth Bossert attended installation of the Eastern Stars at East Palestine.

Miss Elizabeth Fife of Kent is spending her vacation with her parents, Jas. Fife and wife.

Several from this locality attended the farmers' institute in Lisbon the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Klingsmith visited her sister, Mrs. Wm. McCave, in Salem, last Saturday.

Joseph Wilkinson and wife and J. Ashbaugh of Derry, Pa., are visiting relatives here for a few days.

Mrs. James Gallagher of Youngstown is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dalrymple a few days this week.

Mrs. Lambert Carrier returned home from Columbus Saturday evening after a few weeks' visit with friends.

Mrs. Dan Stevens and children of Sebring are spending a week with her parents, Squire Johnson and wife.

Allen D. Temple of Youngstown called Sunday at his home to see his sister Mary, who is ill with pneumonia.

Miss Epha Wilson of Youngstown called on friends here Monday and took supper with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dalrymple.

Farmers north of town almost to a man will attend the institute in Greenford Dec. 31 and Jan. 1. A fine program will be presented.

Mrs. Abram Stouffer, son Louis and daughter May went to Youngstown Friday to visit a few days in with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denner.

All trimmed hats for sale at $1.00 to $1.50. Also a lot of head made fancy work on sale at half price at Brain's millinery store.—Adv. 39-2

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moore listed Sunday with John P. Moore, north of Salem, who has been ill and reported that he is improving.

Miss Clara Weikart entertained the Woman's Home Circle last Thursday night. The evening was spent in a social good time and the hostess served an elegant lunch.

Salem will have a Community Christmas tree Friday night. The tree will be lighted with beautiful colored lights. The treat will be given Friday night to the children.

The Methodist Sunday school will give a cantata entitled "The Gruff Judge and Happy Santa Claus" Friday evening in town hall. Admittance free. A silver offering will be taken.

Miss Beatie Hilda Coy, daughter of the late Gleason Coy, near Washingtonville and W. Roscoe Nye, of Leetonia, were united in marriage last Saturday. Mr. Nye is employed on the McKee farm, near Leetonia.

The jury in the case of Allen against Roth, tried in common pleas court at Lisbon last week, failed to agree and was discharged. The case grew out of the renting of property on the Mahoning county side of the village by Allen to Roth when Columbiana county was dry under the Rose law. The action has been in the courts for a long time and has attracted not a little attention.

ISLAND

Dec. 22—S. G. McClun recently butchered three hogs for Wm. Holt that averaged around 300 pounds dressed. He was assisted by the owner and Wm. Wilkinson. A pretty good day's work for three boys with a combined age of 205 years.

John Martin of North Lima rented the Mrs. Sally Gogaware farm near Leetonia and will get possession in the early spring.

Miss Lucile Lavell Smith of Leetonia recently called on Miss Nellie Richard.

Frank Royer is ill with grip.

W. J. Archer and D. R. Lehman had business in Youngstown Monday.

A baby girl came Saturday to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Showalter.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Weaver were Sunday guests in the home of Henry Lehman.

Miss Elsie Miller, who attends the North Manchester college in Indiana, is here for the holiday vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller.

Henry Lehman had business at the county seat Wednesday.

Miss Lucile Longenecker, who has been seriously ill with cellulitis, is slowly recovering.

Misses May and Gay Roller were entertained Sunday by Mrs. H. H. Calvin.

The Night Owl Singing Club met in honor of Pearl, Iva and Roy Summers at the home of their uncle, Henry Lehman, Tuesday evening and did justice to themselves in entertaining these young people who leave for their home at Wakarusa, Ind., Thursday morning.

Miss Bertha Lehman called on her aunt, Mrs. Elsie Moore, in East Leetonia, Monday.

M. M. Ziegler and Jonas Wisler will move back to their former home early in the new year.

Joe Weikart of Greenford and H. E. Calvin of Clarksville had business here Tuesday.

Wm. Brubaker buzzed fire wood for Moore and Toot Monday.

Geo. Love has again leased the Eastern farm at Cherry Fork where he lived several years ago.

D. R. Lehman and wife spent Wednesday with Mrs. Carrie Thomas in Salem.

Herman Coy is sporting a new Overland car.

Mrs. Anna Rowe and daughter, Iva Rennie Hendricks, and Nick Pavoe were Sunday guests at Fred Bruderly's.

MILLVILLE

Dec. 22—The central farmers' institute held in Lisbon Friday was attended by a large crowd and was a most instructive and interesting meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Orr were weekend guests of friends in Youngstown.

Clarence Oesch of near Damascus spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. John Lippl.

Miss Olive Bailey, instructor in the Millville school, was off duty Monday on account of the serious illness of her mother.

Mrs. A. B. Coy has concluded a visit with her daughter, Mrs. O. E. Bush, of Canton and returned home.

J. M. Davis and son Larry of Washingtonville were callers in the village Tuesday.

Last Wednesday evening a lodge of Pythian sisters was organized in Sebring, members of the order being present from Salem, Washingtonville, Alliance and Canton.

Mrs. Ernest Taylor and children spent Monday with Salem friends.

Miss Minnie Sell has concluded a visit with Alliance friends and returned home.

Mrs. G. E. Gledhill of Salem visited friends here Tuesday.

J. E. Johnson of Alliance called in the village Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Frederick were Salem callers Saturday.

Mrs. R. G. Sanders spent Tuesday in Salem.

J. E. Landis of Youngstown was a caller in the village Sunday.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

Dec. 22—The series of meetings, conducted by Evangelist Haskins of Columbus closed Monday evening. A number of penitents bowed at the altar.

Ruth, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Knight, who was seriously ill with a severe cold is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Carrie Schifferstein has returned from a visit with relatives in Canton, Niles and Youngstown.

Daisy Ripple is visiting in Youngstown with his grandma, Mrs. Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Ripple were called to Youngstown several days ago as witnesses in the case of Jones vs. Robertson.

Merry Christmas to all.

PROSPECT HILL

Dec. 22—Miss Lottie Oesch visited friends in Niles Saturday and Sunday.

C. C. Bowman was in Salem Thursday.

Visitors at Emily Howard's Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Durr of Toot's Corners and Mrs. Joe Cronick of Patmos.

Mrs. Angus Kronick and daughter Mary and Flossie Boyer were in Alliance Saturday.

Miss Bertha Arner spent Saturday and Sunday with E. W. Crum and family in Rosemont.

Sylvester Fawcett was in Canfield Monday.

Christmas is near. Make some one happy.

SALEM

Quite a number from the city attended the Christmas entertainment given last Friday night in Goshen grange hall. The program was a good one and greatly pleased the large audience present.

The school tendered Christmas programs last Friday afternoon when the schools closed for the holiday vacation which will continue until Monday, Jan. 3.

D. W. Galehouse of Canfield addressed the meeting of the Eastern Ohio Jersey Breeders' Association Wednesday and in the evening spoke to the district school superintendents, bankers and business men at the chamber of commerce rooms on the work of boys' clubs in Mahoning county.

M. E. Miskall, well known in this city, has been appointed postmaster in East Liverpool.

Herbert Huls was fined $10 and costs by Mayor Johnson for striking Frank Owings and breaking his jaw a couple of weeks ago.

Howard Holloway of Columbiana speeded his automobile on McKinley avenue and drew a fine of $5 and costs.

All the stores in the city will close Christmas.

Next week will be observed as the week of prayer by the federated churches of the city.

The Mullins Co. paid the last $200 of the $1,000 necessary to make the Community Christmas tree and treat for the Fairmount Home kiddies a success.

Geo. Adair will succeed Edwin Windle as janitor at the Prospect street school building. Mr. Adair was among the first to take the civil service examination for the place. He has been acting as a special policeman in the city for some time.

Old-time prosperity is again in evidence at the Buckeye works. Orders have been pouring in and the number of men employed will be increased from time to time.

Salem's second automobile show will be held Jan. 19-22.

The Elks will give the poor children of the city their annual treat on Friday.

Mrs. Henry Bergman slipped and fell on the porch of her home the other night and broke her left leg above the knee. She was taken to the hospital.

The Community Christmas tree has been erected at the corner of Main and Broadway. It is covered with colored lights and ornaments.

It is pleasing news to Salem people to hear that the road from Toot's Corners to a point in Canfield township is to be macadamized the coming summer, thus closing a gap in the road that at certain times of year is impassable. Many Salem people using automobiles to visit Youngstown travel the road through Greenford and this bad strip of road must be encountered.

The present hunting season closes Jan. 1 but a new license must be secured by nimrods who desire to hunt on that day.

Judge L. T. Fary of Lisbon delivered the principal address at the dedication last Saturday afternoon of the new $20,000 school house at the Fairmount Children's Home near Mt. Union.

The family theater has been closed indefinitely for repairs.

McGill's Red Cross Christmas seals have been sold in this city.

Salem commandery, Knights Templar, will meet in the Masonic temple Christmas forenoon for the annual Christmas observance exercises.

The arrival of Santa Claus is so near that it is not difficult to imagine that the jingle of the bells on his reindeer can be heard.

The coming year should show a substantial growth in this city. All conditions now appear favorable.

Ezra Webster, who was brought to the city hospital from Lisbon two weeks ago to receive treatment for a carbuncle at the base of the brain, died Monday afternoon. He was 80 years old and as an auctioneer and trainer of horses was well known throughout the county. His remains were taken to Lisbon Tuesday and placed in the mausoleum.

Fred Libert, charged with contributing to the delinquency of Belle French, aged 15, of Negley, was sentenced by Judge Farr at Lisbon to serve 90 days in the Canton workhouse.

TURNER STREET

Dec. 22—Miss Bell Carson and Samuel Carson of Peropolis, Pa., have returned home after spending some time here with their brother, A. C. Carson.

Those from here who were in Youngstown the past week were Esther and Lutha Brobst, Mrs. I. S. Pershing, Erda Pershing, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Byerly and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Beardsley.

Waldo Ewing is home from the Ohio university in Columbus to spend the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry May of Austintown called at H. B. Childer's Tuesday afternoon.

Walter and Earl Wilson and Eugene Crawford of Canfield spent Wednesday at H. J. Beardsley's.

Mrs. Lucy Osborn and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Byerly attended the bazaar at Zion Reformed church last Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Byerly called on Mrs. Edward Sprinkle of Lynn street last Thursday afternoon.

Adam and Elmer Brobst butchered for themselves and Mrs. Alfred Kennedy the first of the week.

School will close here Friday until after the holidays.

Mrs. Teresa Schisler of West Austintown spent the first of the week at Adam Brobst's.

Chas. Carson of Greenford is spending some time here.

Mrs. Anna Collins, well and favorably known in this vicinity is to be married in Youngstown Christmas day at Attorney E. M. Thompson's, the lucky man being Mr. A. E. Holmes, plant-chief of the Bell Telephone Co. in Youngstown. Invitations have been received by the families of M. B. Childer and F. R. Ewing.

Filling the Stockings

CORNERSBURG

Dec. 22—The young ladies' Sunday school class of the Central Christian church of which Miss Nettie Riblet is a member, surprised her last Wednesday evening by giving her a linen shower. The evening was pleasantly spent with music and social chat. A fine lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller entertained a large number of neighbors and friends Friday evening. Games, music and dancing whiled the hours away. At midnight a choice luncheon was served.

Ralph Flickinger of Boardman was a Sunday dinner guest of Mrs. Roy Osborn and son Leroy.

Miss Nettie Riblet, a bride-elect, was the guest of honor at a class Christmas party given by Mrs. Wessman Smith, class teacher, at her home on the Poland road, last Thursday.

Thomas Wanamaker spent Saturday night and Sunday with Alliance relatives.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCarty of West street, a son Dec. 19. He has been named Ellis Dewese.

Mrs. Elton Crum and daughter Edith of the city spent Tuesday in the home of Earl Corli.

Maurice Whitke of Canton spent Saturday night and Sunday in the home of P. B. Riblet.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. David Ross of the Bear's Den road, a son last week Wednesday evening. He has been named David Nelson.

William Culver of Bear's Den road has moved into his new house on Lantierman avenue.

Miss Nettie Riblet spent a day last week in the home of her uncle, Horace Riblet, on the Bear's Den road.

There will be Christmas services in the Cornersburg Lutheran church Sunday evening, Dec. 26, at 7:30 eastern time.

SHADY HOLLOW

Dec. 22—Clyde Van Fossan is driving the school wagon for Frank Paul in from Woodworth to North Lima.

Mrs. Carrie Wortz came home from New Best last Wednesday.

Mr. Marietta Chubb is doing sewing for her daughter, Mrs. Park Coler, of Woodworth. Ada Frye is staying with her mother, Mrs. Flickinger, while she is away.

Little Naomi Beard was with her grandmother, Mrs. E. C. Heinzelman, a couple of days the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy and H. D. Kaercher of Youngstown called at A. P. Lloyd's Sunday afternoon.

Curtis Bieker and family of Woodworth visited at R. E. Beber's Sunday.

G. L. Minard spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. A. R. Smith, of New Buffalo, who is sick.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Meeker and Wm. Dietrich helped A. P. Lloyd butcher Tuesday.

E. P. Rothgeb is hauling gravel for Fred Fries.

BOWMAN'S CORNERS

Dec. 22—A. H. Resler is able to be out again.

N. M. Cramer husked corn for I. H. Huffman two days last week.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Bowman Friday was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Comfort Sisco of Salem spent last Thursday evening at A. K. Leyman's.

Roy and Clyde Brown were Sunday visitors at Betty Saxon's.

Fred Bowman of Apple Avenue was a caller at Dallas Bowman's last Wednesday evening.

Everybody attend the Christmas entertainment in the Concord church Friday evening, Dec. 24.

Mrs. George Brown and daughter Hannah were Salem shoppers Tuesday.

A. H. Resler was in Canfield one day last week.

EAST CANFIELD STREET

Dec. 21—Ell Beard of Youngstown spent Saturday evening and Sunday with Mrs. Mary Wehr and daughter Lillie.

Dr. Justice of Poland was on the street Saturday.

Allen Weaver and Ward Greasel of New Buffalo were here Saturday.

Among those from here in Youngstown Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kyle, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Stratford, Mrs. Lois Edsall and daughter Mrs. E. P. Resler, Arthur Kyle and Allen Chubb.

T. G. Stratford and R. L. Kyle attended Noah Baringer's sale Monday.

Edwin Hunter accompanied Otto Borgner to Youngstown Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Beard and Martin Neff, Jr. of New Buffalo called at Mrs. Lois Edsall's Monday.

Wm. Hunter, Daniel Kohler and Frank Rupprecht were to their homes in Marquis over Sunday.

Augusta Bohn is suffering with appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ensign Stacey were Canfield shoppers Monday night.

Allie Suttle and Harry Hancock of Youngstown called at R. L. Kyle's Thursday.

Mrs. R. H. Byerly and Mrs. Lucy Osborn spent Thursday with Mrs. Edward Sprinkle.

J. H. Leyda, T. G. Stratford, John Riley and Edward Sprinkle attended the Weber-Mackill sale Thursday.

John Tranter and mother of Youngstown spent a few hours Thursday at Mrs. Mary Wehr's.

Mary Kyle attended a party at Jonathan Kohler's Saturday night.

Earl Kyle of Youngstown spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Kyle.

Miss Belle Getz of Youngstown spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Edward Sprinkle.

NEW BUFFALO

Dec. 22—The Reformed Sunday school Christmas exercise will be held Friday evening, Dec. 24. Subject, "The Scenery of the City of Bethlehem."

Russell Morris has been sick since Saturday morning. Not being able to attend school worries him.

Laston Frederick came home Saturday to spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Beard were in Columbiana Saturday.

Clark Baer had business in Youngstown Saturday.

Mrs. Catherine Messerly is suffering with quinsy.

Albert Moff is home for the holidays.